

THE NEW LOAN

Ordinance Has Passed Both Branches of Council and

WILL GO TO THE PEOPLE SEPT. 26.

To Be Voted On—The Natural Gas Company Makes a Statement About Its Ability to Furnish Gas—Many Matters of More or Less Importance Considered—A Business-Like Session.

Last night's Council meeting did not get down to business till after 8 o'clock, but when it did start it made business fly in a way that was really encouraging to the reporters and the janitor.

Licenses to keep saloons were granted to Lawrence Ray, at No. 3746 Alley D, and to Patrick Moran, at No. 204 Main street. The license of Capps & Loomis was annulled, and the rebate applied to a license for John Loomis, at the same place.

The communication of the board of water works trustees, which was considered by the joint meeting of the Council committee on water works and the board last Friday, and which appeared in the INTELLIGENCER on Saturday, was read and with it the resolution, passed by the joint meeting, recommending the adoption of the suggestions of the board. Mr. Maxwell moved to refer it to the finance committee so that the possibility of relieving the board from the interest payment complained of may be considered.

The committee on streets, alleys and grades, which about a year ago thought it had settled all differences between A. B. Caldwell and the city concerning the half lot taken in the straightening of Caldwell's Run, reported that Mr. Caldwell had refused to accept $1,000 for the north half of lot No. 16, square 12, corner Chapline and Twenty-ninth streets, and all damages. It recommended that all former action be rescinded and that a resolution be adopted agreeing to pay A. B. Caldwell $1,000 when he shall agree to make a deed for the lot and forego all further claims for damages.

A DIFFERENCE OF OPINION.

The committee on ordinances reported adversely on the proposition by Mr. Happle to draft ordinances prohibiting cattle from running at large and vendors from crying their wares in a loud voice. In the first branch, the report was amended instructing the solicitor to draft an ordinance in accordance with the suggestion of the resolution originally submitted to the committee. When it came back to the second, Mr. Bailey asked why the report had been sent to the first, and moved to lay it on the table, which was adopted.

The committee on real estate reported that it had re-insured the Public Building for $50,000 in sixteen insurance companies represented in the city, the premium for three years amounting to $1,800.

The Main street bridge commission reported the following amounts due on account of the Main street bridge and a resolution authorizing the clerk to draw orders for the amounts to the Main street bridge loan commissioners:

Paige, Carey & Co., estimate No. 7, $17,088; City Engineer Hoge, commission on estimate No. 7, $411.17; Tribune & Lutz, for plumbing in rooms for testing stone and cement, $25; to City Engineer Hoge, for having rooms cleaned, $19; total, $17,774.27.

Mr. Bailey moved to refer to the finance committee, but upon a statement by Mr. Kenney that it could do no good, Mr. Bailey withdrew the motion and moved to lay the matter aside till the ordinance increasing the rate of interest on the loan be passed and the money realized.

The Board of Equalization and Appeals reported the result of its labors and asked the payment of salaries and bills amounting to $246.35. It also submitted a recommendation that a board of three assessors and a clerk be appointed to make a reassessment of the real estate of the city and that they be put to work as soon as practicable. The matter was referred to the committee on ordinances on motion of Mr. Maxwell.

The Electric Light Commission reported that it had considered bids for the building of the electrical power house, and recommended that the building be given to the Wheeling Mining and Manufacturing Company at $30,000, and the structural iron work to the Van Dorn Iron works, of Cleveland, at $2,400. These recommendations were adopted, and the mayor was authorized to sign contracts for the same.

THE LOAN ORDINANCE. On the bill of Messrs. Mathison and Wilkinson, commissioners of the compromise loan reported in favor of paying them $200, and also of paying $22.50 due F. A. Wheeler for services as notary to William Myles, city collector. Mr. Maxwell explained that $100 of this money was for extra work on the part of the commissioners in straightening out entanglements in the loan in their charge.

At 9:15 Clerk Thoner began reading an ordinance providing for issuing bonds in the sum of $99,500, at 6 percent interest, to be known as the Main street bridge bonds, series No. 2, to take the place of the same amount of the 44 percent bonds of series No. 1, Main street bridge bonds, remaining unsold. The ordinance provided for issuing $9,500 in $100 bonds. When it was on its second reading, Mr. J. J. Jenson stated that $100 bonds are hard to sell, and recommended that the number of $100 bonds be made small. On motion of Mr. Maxwell the number of $100 bonds was reduced from ninety-five to twenty-five, the residue to be put into $500 bonds. On motion the commissioners of the first loan, Messrs. Jenson, Doffins and Hughes, were made commissioners of the new loan. The ordinance provided for $50 a year for the commissioners for clerk hire. Mr. Maxwell called attention to the fact that these same commissioners are now being paid $50 a year on what is practically the same loan. He moved that this later $50 be stricken off. Mr. Maxwell's motion was defeated. The blank space left for a date for holding the election was filled with September 23, Saturday. The ordinance was read by its title and passed unanimously. The first concurred.

ABOUT NATURAL GAS.

Mr. O'Leary presented a resolution stating that whereas the Natural Gas Company of West Virginia has notified the chairman of the committee on health of its intention to shut the gas from the crematory, the matter be referred to the committee on health with power to act, and that they act immediately.

George B. Caldwell, who represents the Gas Company, was granted the privilege of the floor, and stated that there had been a shortage of gas last year and the prospect is that there will be a greater scarcity this year, and that there will not be enough to run the water works and crematory and supply the private needs of the city. The gas company has made no written statement, nor has it set any time at which the gas will be shut off. It is not possible to serve all, and a partial service for the water works and crematory and the private consumers will give satisfaction nowhere. The company has given this notice verbally so that the Council may take any action it deems expedient to save the annoyance which will result from a short supply.

Mr. O'Leary asked that the ordinance granting the company the use of the streets and alleys be read and Clerk Thoner read the ordinance through. When the reading was finished, Mr. O'Leary moved that the city solicitor meet with the committee of health to instruct it as to its powers and duties under the ordinance and in the premises.

In the first branch of Mr. Wilson moved to add the waterworks committee and the board of waterworks trustees be added to the committee of health to which the second referred the matter which motion was adopted.

DEPARTMENT BILLS.

Department bills were ordered paid as follows:

Cemeteries	$ 142.18

City prison	33.64
Health	46.88

A claim of $13 for a water pipe removed by the board of public works in grading Twenty-ninth street, presented by William Shockey, was referred to the board of public works. A petition from Mary Gerber, of No. 333 Main street, calling attention to damages done to her property by lowering the grade at that point and asking relief was referred to the committee on streets, alleys and grades. Mrs. Michael Green complained that she had been damaged $20 worth by the changing the Eighteenth street sewer. Her claim was referred to the board of public works with power to settle. William Carey complained that his water pipes had been damaged $22.50 worth and the board of public works was empowered to settle.

A resolution was adopted by the first branch and concurred in by the second instructing the committee which had in charge the drafting of resolutions on the death of Dr. George Baird, to deliver to the family the engrossed resolutions adopted by Council.

A number of petitions for sewers, curbing, etc., were referred to the Board of Public Works and the proper committees.

A. P. W. &amp; K. Y. PETITION.

In the first branch a petition was presented by Dr. George J. Caddie at the request of Mr. John McLure, vice president of the Pittsburgh, Wheeling & Kentucky railroad, asking that the railroad committee of the City Council meet with the directors of the P. W. & K. Y. railroad at the depot at the foot of Eleventh street at the earliest possible day to take into consideration and fully understand what amount of ground on the wharf the railroad company wants and what the committee is willing to recommend that Council give. It also states that it will soon be necessary to tear away the old platform, and if there can be no better facilities given it will be necessary to seek another location for the passenger station and to prepare a single track way station at that point. The matter was referred to the committee on railroads, wharves and streets, alleys and grades jointly.

MRS. HART'S SCHOOL. Opens With a Brilliant Reception at its New Quarters—A Large Number of Guests Present.

Last night a social reception was held at the new quarters of Mrs. M. Stevens Hart's school for girls in the Crangle block. A large number of parents of the pupils and other friends of the institution were present. Rev. Dr. J. T. McLure opened with prayer, and was followed by Hon. G. W. Atkinson in an address on education. Mr. Atkinson spoke of the advances lately made in the higher education of women, and showed how it had become evident in institutions where co-education of the sexes was practical that women were well capable of studying the higher branches and becoming proficient therein. Even in higher mathematics women had done, are now doing, good work.

Dr. C. W. Cushing spoke of his own experience in teaching in New England, and agreed with Mr. Atkinson in his estimate of the capabilities of woman, in acquiring the higher touches of learning. Rev. Dr. R. Rush Swope and Dr. S. L. Jepson, president of the Board of Education, also delivered impromptu addresses. Rev. Dr. McClure referred in feeling terms to Miss Mary Miller, a favorite among the teachers of the school, who died last summer.

At intervals Miss Anna Lang played selections on the harp, and towards the end Miss Hauser entertained the guests with a fine performance on the piano. Dr. John L. Dickey was the master of ceremonies, and introduced the various speakers.

Yesterday evening was the prelude to a number of social receptions to be given at the school during the season. The audience was large and presented a brilliant appearance, many of the ladies being in evening costume. The new quarters, made necessary by the largely increased attendance of pupils, are commodious, well lighted and airy. They are suitably fitted up and are exceptionally well adapted to the purpose intended. The school opens with a large roll of pupils, and the prospects for the coming term are the brightest.
